This is an office reference.

Shri Sunil Sinha, Addl. Advocate General, for the State.

Shri A.K. Vijayavargiya, Addl. Chief Secretary, has filed an affidavit.

Paras 3 and 4 of the said affidavit are pertinent, which are quoted below:

> "3. The complaint so far as it relates to illegal payment to Regional Transport Office staff by R.T.O. Agents is totally general and vague and without any substantial evidence. If any specific complaint received then it will be enquired into and if found correct, necessary action will be taken against the culprits. It is respectfully submitted that neither the State Government nor the Motor Vehicles Act, 1988 and the rules made thereunder recognizes any person as "R.T.O. Agent".
> 4.The officers of the Transport Department while dealing with Motor Vehicles Act, entertains either only the owners of the vehicles or the persons duly authorised by them."

Shri Sinha submits that the authorities will do periodical check-ups and suitable instructions will be issued. It is also submitted that so far as change of numbers (series) in the vehicles is concerned, suitable instructions were issued and this has been done.

In view of the above statement, the proceedings are dropped, leaving open to the authorities concerned to take such steps, which they think proper, convenient to the public.

With the aforesaid observations, this petition stands disposed of.
